

Practitioner Input Form
Submitted: 15/02/2005

Input Record Number	004
Name	Hanlie Hallingh
Contact Information	hhallingh@csir.ca.za
Organisation(s) Involved	CSIR Environmental
Geographic Area	South Africa
Dates
Communities Involved	Elin-Limpopo Province, South Africa
Duties and Responsibilities/ Purpose of Project	Implementation of sewage treatment in rural areas. Installation of fallout pipes to new areas. Environmental Impact Assessment.
Context of Intervention	Sewage treatment facilities in rural areas.

Practitioner Reflective Case Study

Input Record Number	004 RCS Hanlie Hanningh
<ol style="list-style-type: none">1) Technological – fallout pipes and treatment facilities2) Without proper training and adequate resources these mechanisms fail.3) Clean drinking water, operational treatment facilities.4) Include public in decision-making, ensure adequate capacity and resource and technology

Practitioner Input – Part II

Input Record Number	004II Hanlie Hallingh
9)	I have left the purely consulting field, but built consultation and inclusive decision-making processes into our projects, even though it is more policy-related.
10)	No.
11)	- Site visits, discussions with the communities - Discussion with consultants in rural areas
12)	Interaction with the affected communities from problem identification to needs analyses to construction, implementation and monitoring. Involve the communities!!
13)	- Developing Makeli based mechanism for watershed services (Nieda King, CSIR Environmental +2712 8412842) - CAMP project (catchment Management for Poverty Alleviation) – Graham von Maltiz +2712 8418672 - Deepening Democracy through IWRM – Sustainable relationships for a scarce natural resource. Einita von Wyt +2712 8412672. - Melanie Wiltenson +2712 8413722